

HUMANITIES: PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE

THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 2014

6 – 9 P.M.

GEORGE VARI ENGINEERING AND COMPUTING CENTRE
SEARS ATRIUM, 3RD FLOOR, 245 CHURCH STREET

SPEAKERS:

MARIANNE HIRSCH, PHD
IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT, MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION (MLA)

JOHN RALSTON SAUL, PHD
PRESIDENT, PEN INTERNATIONAL; DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR, RYERSON UNIVERSITY

STEPHEN SLEMON, PHD
PRESIDENT, ASSOCIATION OF CANADIAN COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY TEACHERS OF ENGLISH (ACCUTE)

MODERATOR:

IRENE GAMMEL, PHD
CANADA RESEARCH CHAIR IN MODERN LITERATURE & CULTURE, RYERSON UNIVERSITY

The English Department invites you to join us for a stimulating evening of discussion and debate on the present state and future direction of the humanities.

For more information, please contact Luanne MacDonell at ext. 6138. To RSVP, please email rsvp@arts.ryerson.ca.

This event is sponsored by the following departments and programs: Arts & Contemporary Studies; Languages, Literatures and Cultures; History; and Philosophy.

Please let us know if we need to make any accessibility accommodations to ensure your inclusion in this event.